Mayor's Message

On behalf of Members of Ottawa City Council, it is my distinct pleasure to extend a warm welcome to all those participating in the 21st Ottawa Fringe Festival, taking place at venues in the heart of our nation's capital, from June 8th to 18th 2017.

As Head of Council, I want also to offer congratulations to the Board members, staff, volunteers and performing artists of the Ottawa Fringe Festival in recognition of its 20th Anniversary, which culminates in theatrical productions in June 2017.

The Ottawa Fringe Festival can also take pride in distinguishing itself as the city's largest and longest-operating theatre festival, whose ticket sales wholly benefit the artists.

I am equally delighted to express my moral support to the Ottawa Fringe Festival for providing an accessible, non-juried and inclusive forum for theatre companies to showcase their creativity and independently present experimental productions.

In addition, I want to take this opportunity to acknowledge the Ottawa Fringe Festival organizers, stage artists and sponsors for dedicating efforts, talents, expertise and resources to the successful planning of this innovative theatre festival.

Canada celebrates its 150th birthday in 2017 and the grandest festivities will be unfolding in Ottawa. I hope that you will join us in our nation's capital for the sesquicentennial anniversary.

Allow me to convey my best wishes to everyone in attendance for a very rewarding experience and to the visitors for a most enjoyable stay in Ottawa.

Sincerely,

Jim Watson
Mayor

Director's Message

It's been a busy year!

If you're just joining us, we've spent the past twelve months celebrating twenty years of Fringe theatre in Ottawa, hosting a series of monthly special events – most notably encore presentations of hit shows from our first twenty years – that have all been leading up to this: the 21st Ottawa Fringe Festival!

The 2017 Ottawa Fringe is the culmination of Fringe20. Besides the usual Fringe fare (more than 350 performances of 55+ shows in 12 venues over 11 days) we're continuing the anniversary celebrations throughout this year's festival: stop by the Fringe Museum in Arts Court for a look at artifacts spanning our 20 years; grab an issue of "Off The Record", a throwback to the pre #ottfringe days when this printed-on-the-photocopier-newsletter was the source for Fringe news, reviews, and gossip; and definitely don't miss our 1997 party on June 10, where we'll dance like it's the late 90's way past curfew.

But that's not all! We're honouring our past while still looking ahead to the future. We're happy to have found a brand new location for our beloved outdoor Beer Tent: join us on Tabaret Lawn (mere steps from Academic Hall, Studio Léonard-Beaulne, and a host of BYOVs) to catch up with friends old and new for a drink and a snack before, between, and after shows. We've also committed to making the Fringe more inclusive and accessible for all our artists and audience, with initiatives in this and the coming years to ensure everyone can (and does!) Fringe.

Our Twenty is Plenty donation campaign is also going strong, with a record number of patrons showing their support for Fringe with a monthly or one-time donation of $20, in honour of our 20 years. Why not join them?

Whether this is Ottawa Fringe number one or twenty one for you, thanks for joining the party. Now get out and see some shows!

Patrick Gauthier
Festival Director

CAFF Message

On behalf of the Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals (CAFF), welcome to the adventure that is Fringe. CAFF is comprised of 33 member festivals across North America with a mission to foster independent artistic exploration for artists and audiences alike. The Fringe is truly a feast for the artistically curious.

This past November CAFF played host to the World Fringe Congress, which gave us a chance to show off our 'Made in Canada' model of Fringing. Over 53 international festivals participated and festival organizers marveled at CAFF's accessible and inclusive model that returns 100% of the ticket price back to artists (minus taxes and fees). This year the Edinburgh Fringe celebrates its 70th anniversary and the global Fringe family celebrates with you!

Thank you for supporting the wild and wonderful movement that is Fringe. I hope you have a great festival.

Kelly Straughan
Canadian Association of Fringe Festivals President

Fringe Museum

20 years of Fringe history... in one room!

We've spent the past year digging through the Ottawa Fringe archives to bring you memories of your favourite festivals. With artifacts spanning our 20 years, the museum is a must-see whether this is your first or twenty-first Ottawa Fringe.

See the first Fringe program! Marvel at our collection of pins! Amaze at how young you used to be!
